NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

SMOKING powder is promised in the next great war with Europe. But there is no need of burying along the war on that account. Any powder will refrain from smoking if let alone.

THE Cambria Iron Company of Johnstown, Pa., has just declared a dividend of 3 per cent. This is recognition with a vim that ought to shame the laggard. The company's works were all swept away in that awful disaster of May 31st.

MAJOR WARNER of Missouri has finally declined the Pension Commission, and his letter to the President, withheld since the 16th inst., is made public. His reason for declining is the existence of business engagements which he has no right to break.

THE New Jersey courts have produced another candidate for the gallows. Joseph Hillman was convicted at Woodbury yesterday of the murder of Henry Seidemann, a Jew peddler. The crime was committed for the purpose of plunder. Hillman was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, November 13th.

CONGRESSMAN NETTING of the Oswego district denies the rumor that he is going to resign on account of ill health. He is still confined to his room, but expects to be able, if the present rate of improvement continues, to take his seat in the House at the opening of the session. His physicians predict his complete recovery.

THE Argentine government has sent to Washington a scheme for dividing 750,000,000 acres of government land in Chubut territory among immigrants. The land will be divided into ten sections, one of which will be reserved for Argentine settlers. The price will be from $1 to $3 per acre (about 24 acres). The land is cheap and fertile and the climate delightful, but the natives make poor neighbors.

THE delegates to the International American Congress have been notified to meet for organization in the Diplomatic room of the State Department October 3d at noon. Mr. Blaine will receive them with an address of welcome, after which an organization will be effected. The delegates will then call upon the President at the White House, and in the evening Mr. Blaine will entertain them at dinner.

MRS. RAY HAMILTON has not yet been sent to prison, but remains in close confinement at May's Landing. Mrs. Rupp, Nurse Donnelly and Baby Beatrice have deserted the cottage at Atlantic City where the stabbing took place, and quietly removed to Philadelphia. It was reported yesterday that Gen. Schuyler Hamilton, Ray's father, would visit Mrs. Hamilton to-day, as she recently wrote him that she had something of great importance to himself and family to communicate.

THE North Philadelphia Baptist Association resolved in convention yesterday that though the voters of Pennsylvania had declared against Prohibition by 185,000 majority, they would work right on until the sale of intoxicants as a beverage had disappeared. "Until we can get Prohibition by constitutional amendment," the resolution reads, "we shall favor local option, the restrictive features of the Brooks law, anything and everything that will restrain, restrict or prohibit the traffic in intoxicating drinks." The Brooks law is the present high license law of Pennsylvania.

THE Massachusetts Republican State Convention yesterday nominated Lieut. Gov. John Q. A. Brackett for Governor on the first ballot. There were 1,428 ballots cast, of which Brackett received 743 and Crapo 674. W. H. Halle of Springfield was nominated for Lieutenant Governor. For the other places the present officers were renominated—Marsden for State Treasurer, Pierce for Secretary of State, and Ladd for Auditor. The platform heartily approves the federal administration, and calls for tariff revision in the direction of protection to industry, and for better regulation of the liquor traffic.

THE new Chinese minister to the United States is Tsui Kuo Ying. He arrived in Washington last night with his suite of 24 other distinguished Chinamen whose names the press reporter does not attempt. The present minister, Chang Yen Hoon, will leave Washington for home next Tuesday. These ministers serve a term of three years each, and it is not in accordance with Chinese civil service reform to reappoint them. The government managers generally, however, to get the best possible service, it being understood that the ambassador who fails in this will forfeit his head when he reaches home.

CHICAGO shows three more $100,000 subscriptions for the World's Fair, and has appointed a committee to confer with the Gov. of Ill. as to what the sale of Illinois will contribute towards a guarantee fund of $10,000,000. The boomers want an extra session of the Legislature called, and will demand $250,000 from the state. The enterprise appears to be languishing in New York. Only three members answered the call for a meeting of the committee on finance yesterday, and a postponement for a week was taken. The New York Sun this morning declared that "the matter of money is not to be the decisive factor in locating the fair." A few days ago it was calling earnestly for a little money—a half million or so. Chicago will steal the fair if the millionaires of New York do not wake up.

THE New York grand jury has not yet reported any indictments in the Flack divorce conspiracy case, but it is expected that Flack, his son William, Civil Justice Monell, Joseph Meeks and Sarah Cherry or Mrs. Raymond will be indicted for conspiracy, while indictments against some members of the party will be found for perjury. The case is being dragged along slowly, and it is not unlikely that the 15th of October will be reached before the Governor finds it necessary to accept Flack's resignation which he is accused of having held in his hands for several weeks. After that date the successor to Flack whom the Governor appoints will hold office during the 1890, instead of being voted out at the next election. The new scandal that the Governor is hatching out of this affair is likely to throw the bogus divorce proceeding into the shade.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS

EMMONS BLAINE—ANITA MCGORMICK.
A Fashionable Wedding Solemnized at Richfield Springs To-Day.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The wedding of Emmons Blaine and Miss Anita McCormick was solemnized in the Brick Presbyterian Church at Richfield Springs at noon. The Church was beautifully decorated. Smiles was suspended 10 feet above the floor, and completely encircled three sides. The space between the floor and the screen was occupied by richly blooming plants in pots. The communion table was banked with Easter lilies. The Chancel was adorned with Abyssinian banana trees on either side, while rare palms and rich plants in pots circled the communion table. On either side of the Chancel arches were handsomely and profusely decorated with ferns, autumn leaves and wild clematis. At Clayton Lodge, where the McCormick family reside, the floral decorations were of the most elaborate nature. Palms and cut flowers adorned the railings, and ivy hung gracefully from the pillars. In the hallway a tennis net was draped against the wall from one end to the other, and was completely filled with orchids and rare roses. Smiles and palms nestled among palms and banks of roses, was a huge Norwegian drinking bowl, also filled with orchids and roses. Palms stood at the foot of the stairway, and the balustrade was worked with smilax and bright roses. The parlors, opening directly off the hall, contained a wreath of palms, and the large mirror mantles held a prodigious supply of bouquets of roses in fancy vases. The sitting-room was profusely decorated with pagodas and Bennett roses. The dining-room had a lattice over each window hung with smilax. Eight large palms stood at either side of the four windows. The fireplace was effectively hidden beneath 400 American beauty roses and a quantity of smilax.

The guests began to arrive on Sunday, and continued to come up to last night. The headquarters are given up to the wedding party. All the Blaines and all the McCormicks were present. The Blaine family includes James G. Blaine and wife, Walker Blaine, James G. Blaine, Jr., Colonel and Mrs. Coppinger, Misses Margaret and Henrietta Blaine, as well as Emmons, the groom. They were all quartered at the Spring House. The McCormicks, who dwell at Clayton Lodge, their summer home, are Mrs. McCormick, Cyrus McCormick, Jr., and wife, who returned from Europe to be present at the wedding; Walter G. McCormick, Harold and Stanley McCormick and Miss Anita, the bride. Among the other guests were: Stephen B. Elkins, wife and daughter, New-Mexico; Marcus Field, wife and daughter, New-York; Mrs. Frank Farwell, Mrs. Cyrus Beatty, Henry Day, wife and Miss Day, F. A. Keep, W. P. Nixon and wife, Dr. W. C. Gray, Mrs. George Ryerson, John Ryerson and Edwin W. Ryerson, William T. Tomlinson, M. L. Roberts, Robert H. Parkinson, Miss C. E. Warts, all of Chicago; Mrs. G. H. Potts and the Misses Potts, New-York; Mrs. John Miller, Miss Miller, Miss Chapman, Princeton, N. J.; W. L. Shafer and wife, Miss Roberts, New-York; B. B. Taggart and wife, Watertown, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. Sanger Brown, Miss Hafer, New-York; H. S. Wright, Oswego; Mrs. L. Wright, Oswego; Mrs. A. C. Whitier, Boston; R. E. Ely and wife, Boston; C. F. Sprague and wife, C. F. Stannard and Miss Stannard, Boston; H. C. Tillman and wife, Detroit; W. H. Staats, J. R. Meers, and D. D. Warner, Scranton, Pa.; Mrs. A. Fell and Miss Fell, Buffalo; Mrs. Charles Keep and R. Keep, Lockport; S. D. Johnson and wife, Clayton; Mrs. N. G. Lawton, Miss H. M. Lawton, Lawton, Me.; C. C. Swan and G. S. Swan, Stamford, Conn.; Walter Damschro, New-York. The latter is the affianced husband of Miss Margaret Blaine, the announcement of their approaching marriage having been made to-day.

A drizzling rain sufficient to disfigure the fell from early morning. But the gay spirits of the wedding guests did not give evidence of having suffered in consequence. At 11 o'clock the guests began to gather in the little church, which was lighted with incandescent electric lights and was completely filled at the hour announced for the ceremony. James G. Blaine, escorted by Harold McCormick, while Mrs. Blaine leaned upon the arm of Frederick Keep. Walter Damschro entered with Miss Margaret Blaine and James G. Jr., with Miss Henrietta. The four occupied one pew. A few minutes after 12 o'clock the wedding party entered and marched up the middle aisle. Harold and Stanley McCormick preceded the mess, Keep and Sprague followed and the rear couple consisted of the bride leaning upon the arm of Walker Blaine. Emmons had entered with Cyrus McCormick and awaited his bride at the altar. The bride's costume was a study of beauty. The material was rich and costly. Though the style was severely simple it was none the less elegant. The waist was of white satin, fitted exquisitely to her well-moulded figure. A bech of India lace fell softly about the throat in the style of Marie Antoinette. The sleeves were composed of soft lace, and reached to the wrists. The entire front was made of valenciennes, meeting a train of white satin. The veil was caught up with a coronet of orange blossoms, and the bride was complete. The ushers were Harold and Stanley McCormick, Frederick Keep and C. F. Sprague. Tannhäuser directed a selection from Organist Tomlinson played a selection from the wedding march was Wagner's "Lohengrin." For the exit, Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

Smokeless powder is promised in the next great war with Europe. But there is no need of hurrying along the war on that account. Any powder will refrain from smoking if let alone.

The Cambria Iron Company of Johnstown, Pa., has just declared a dividend of 5 per cent. This is recuperation with a vim that ought to shame the lament. The company's works were all swept away in that awful disaster of May 31st.

MAJOR WARNER of Missouri has finally declined the Pension Commissionership, and his letter to the President, withheld since the 16th inst., is made public. His reason for declining is the existence of business engagements which he has no right to break.

The New Jersey courts have produced another candidate for the gallows. Joseph Hillman was convicted at Woodbury yesterday of the murder of Henry Seidemann, a Jew peddler. The crime was committed for the purpose of plunder. Hillman was sentenced to be hanged on Friday, November 13th.

CONGRESSMAN NUTTIN of the Oswego district denies the rumor that he is going to resign on account of ill health. He is still confined to his room, but expects to be able, if the present rate of improvement continues, to take his seat in the House at the opening of the session. His physicians predict his complete recovery.

The Argentine government has sent to Washington a scheme for dividing 750,000,000 acres of government land in Chubut territory among immigrants. The land will be divided into ten sections, one of which will be reserved for Argentine settlers. The price will be from $1 to $3 per acre (about 24 acres). The land is cheap and fertile and the climate delightful, but the natives make poor neighbors.

The delegates to the International American Congress have been notified to meet for organization in the Diplomatic room of the State Department October 2d at noon. Mr. Blaine will receive them with an address of welcome, after which an organization will be effected. The delegates will then call upon the President at the White House, and in the evening Mr. Blaine will entertain them at dinner.

Mrs. RAY HAMILTON has not yet been sent to prison, but remains in close confinement at May's Landing. Mrs. Rupp, Nurse Donnelly and Baby Beatrice have deserted the cottage at Atlantic City where the stabbing took place, and quietly removed to Philadelphia. It was reported yesterday that Gen. Schuyler Hamilton, Ray's father, would visit Mrs. Hamilton to-day, as she recently wrote him that she had something of great importance to himself and family to communicate.

The North Philadelphia Baptist Association resolved in convention yesterday that though the voters of Pennsylvania had declared against Prohibition by 185,000 majority, they would work right on until the sale of intoxicants as a beverage had disappeared. "Until we can get Prohibition by constitutional amendment," the resolution reads, "we shall favor local option, the restrictive features of the Brooks law, anything and everything that will restrain, restrict or prohibit the traffic in intoxicating drinks." The Brooks law is the present high license law of Pennsylvania.

The Massachusetts Republican State Convention yesterday nominated Lieut. Gov. John Q. A. Brackett for Governor on the first ballot. There were 1,428 ballots cast, of which Brackett received 748 and Crapo 674. W. H. Hall of Springfield was nominated for Lieutenant Governor. For the other places the present officers were renominated—Marsden for State Treasurer, Pierce for Secretary of State, and Ladd for Auditor. The platform heartily approves the federal administration, and calls for tariff revision in the direction of protection to industry, and for better regulation of the liquor traffic.

The new Chinese minister to the United States is Tsui Kwo Ying. He arrived in Washington last night with his suite of 24 other distinguished Chinamen whose names the press reporter does not attempt. The present minister, Chang Yen Hoon, will leave Washington for home next Tuesday. These ministers serve a term of three years each, and it is not in accordance with Chinese civil service reform to reappoint them. The government manages generally, however, to get the best possible service, it being understood that the ambassador who fails in this will forfeit his rank when he reaches home.

CHICAGO shows three more $100,000 subscriptions for the World's Fair, and has appointed a committee to confer with the Governor as to what the state of Illinois will contribute towards a guarantee fund of $10,000,000. The boomers want an extra session of the Legislature called, and will demand $250,000 from the state. The enterprise appears to be languishing in New York. Only three members answered the call for a meeting of the committee on finance yesterday, and a postponement for a week was taken. The New York Sun this morning declared that "the matter of money is not to be the decisive factor in locating the fair." A few days ago it was calling earnestly for a little money—a half million or so. Chicago will steal the fair if the millionaires of New York do not wake up.

The New York grand jury has not yet reported any indictments in the Black divorce conspiracy case, but it is expected that Black, his son William, Civil Justice Monell, Joseph Meeks and Sarah Cherry or Mrs. Raymond will be indicted for conspiracy, while indictments against some members of the party will be found for perjury. The case is being dragged along slowly, and it is not unlikely that the 15th of October will be reached before the Governor finds it necessary to accept Black's resignation which he is accused of having held in his hands for several weeks. After that date the successor to Black whom the Governor appoints will hold office during 1890, instead of being voted out at the next election. The new scandal that the Governor is hatching out of this affair is likely to throw the bogus divorce proceeding into the shade.

EMMONS BLAINE—ANITA MCGONICK.
A Fashionable Wedding Solemnized at Richfield Springs To-Day.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The wedding of Emmons Blaine and Miss Anita McGonick was solemnized in the Brick Presbyterian Church at Richfield Springs to-day. The church was beautifully decorated. Smilax was suspended 10 feet above the floor, and completely encircled three sides. The space between the floor and the screen was occupied by richly blooming plants in pots. The communion table was banked with Easter lilies. The chancel was adorned with Abyssinian banana trees on either side, while rare palms and rich plants in pots circled the communion table. On either side of the chancel arches were handsomely and profusely decorated with ferns, autumn leaves and wild clematis. At Clayton Lodge, where the McGonicks family reside, the floral decorations were of the most elaborate nature. Palms and cut flowers adorned the buildings, and ivy hung gracefully from the pillars. In the hallway a tennis net was draped against the wall from one end to the other, and was completely filled with orchids and rare roses. Smilax and palms covered the fire-place. On the mantle, nestled among palms and banks of roses, was a huge Norwegian drinking bowl, also filled with orchids and roses. Palms stood at the foot of the stairway, and the balustrade was worked with smilax and bright roses. The parlors, opening directly off the hall, contained a wreath of palms, and the large mirror mantles held a prodigious supply of bouquets of roses in fancy vases. The sitting-room was profusely decorated with pagodas and Bennett roses. The dining-room had a lattice over each window hung with smilax. Eight large palms stood at either side of the four windows. The fire-place was effectively hidden beneath 400 American beauty roses and a quantity of smilax.

The guests began to arrive on Sunday, and continued to come up to last night. The headquarters are at the Spring house. Nearly the entire house is given up to the wedding party. All the Blaines and all the McGonicks were present. The Blaine family includes James G. Blaine and wife, Walker Blaine, James G. Blaine, Jr., Colonel and Mrs. Coppinger, Miss Margaret and Henrietta Blaine, as well as Emmons, the groom. They were all quartered at the Spring House. The McGonicks, who dwell at Clayton Lodge, their summer home, are Mrs. McGonick, Cyrus McGonick, Jr., and wife, who returned from Europe to be present at the wedding; Walter G. McGonick, Harold and Stanley McGonick and Miss Anita, the bride. Among the other guests were: Stephen B. Elkins, wife and daughter, New-Mexico; Marcus Field, wife and daughter, Mrs. Frank Farwell, Mrs. Cyrus Beatty, Henry Day, wife and Miss Day, F. A. Keep, W. P. Nixon and wife, Dr. W. C. Gray, Mrs. George Ryerson, John Ryerson and Edwin W. Ryerson, William T. Tomlinson, M. L. Roberts, Robert H. Parkinson, Miss C. E. Warts, all of Chicago; Mrs. G. H. Potts and the Misses Potts, New-York; Mrs. John Miller, Miss Miller, Miss Chapman, Princeton, N. J.; W. L. Shafer and wife, Miss Roberts, New-York; B. B. Taggart and wife, Watertown, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. Sanger Brown, Miss Hafer, New-York; H. S. Wright, Oswego; Mrs. L. Wright, Oswego; Mrs. A. C. Whittey, Boston; R. R. Ely and wife, Boston; C. F. Sprague and wife, C. F. Stanwood and Miss Stanwood, Boston; H. C. Tillman and wife, Detroit; W. H. Staar, R. B. Meigs, and D. D. Warner, Scranton, Pa.; Mrs. A. Fell and Miss Fell, Buffalo; Mrs. Charles Keep and R. Keep, Lockport; S. D. Johnson and wife, Clayton; Mrs. N. G. Lawton, Miss H. M. Lawton, H. Lawton, Mrs. C. C. Swan and G. S. Swan, Stamford, Conn.; Walter Damschro, New-York. The latter is the affianced husband of Miss Margaret Blaine, the announcement of their approaching marriage having been made to-day.

A drizzling rain sufficient to be disagreeable fell from early morning. But the gay spirits of the wedding guests did not give evidence of being affected in consequence of the weather. At 10 o'clock the guests began to gather in the little church, which was lighted with incandescent electric lights and it was completely filled at the hour announced for the ceremony. James McGonick, escorted by Harold McGonick, while Mrs. Blaine leaned upon the arm of Frederick Keep. Walter Damschro entered with Miss Margaret Blaine and James G. Jr., with Miss Henrietta. The four couples occupied one pew. A few minutes after 12 o'clock the wedding party entered and marched up the middle aisle. Harold and Stanley McGonick preceded Messrs. The Town and City Committees are also requested to call the caucuses in their respective towns, districts and wards to select delegates to such County Convention, at such places as they may designate and to give notice thereof in the manner prescribed by the annexed resolution on the 11th day of October, which is hereby fixed as the day on which such caucuses are to be held. A. S. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

The Republican State ticket nominated at Saratoga yesterday appears at the head of these columns. The names will be recognized as those of men who have won distinction in public, professional or business life.

John I. Gilbert, nominated for Secretary of State, is a lawyer of Malone, fifty-two years old, and a graduate of the University of Vermont. He was a member of Assembly in 1876, '77 and '78, and declined a fourth nomination. In 1882 he was elected to the Senate, in which body he served as a member of the Judiciary Committee, and chairman of the Committee on Literature. Mr. Gilbert was a successful teacher before he became a lawyer, and has twice been the candidate of a large portion of the State for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He occupies the most advanced ground on the question of restrictive liquor legislation. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School at Potsdam, and President of the Asylum of Northern New York and of the Institution for Deaf Mutes at Malone.

Martin W. Cooke, nominated for Comptroller, is 49 years old, a native of Washington county and a graduate of Rochester University. On completing his law studies in 1865 he entered into partnership with Sanford E. Church, who was elected Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals in 1870. Mr. Cooke has since continued the practice of law in Rochester with great success, but was never before a candidate for political office. He has been President of the State Bar Association since 1887 and is a member of the Board of Trustees of Rochester University.

Ira M. Hedges, nominee for State Treasurer, is a successful business man of Haverstraw. He was a brave soldier in the war for the Union, and served as Colonel on Gen. Meade's staff. He has also been Commander of the Grand Army of New York. He has never held public office, though always an active and zealous worker in the Republican ranks.

James M. Varnum, candidate for Attorney General, is one of the most distinguished and successful lawyers of New York, and the senior member of the firm of Varnum & Harrison, Nassau street. He is of Revolutionary ancestry, and a member of the Society of the Cincinnati. He is forty-two years old, and a graduate of Yale College. He was a member of Gov. Cornell's staff with the rank of Colonel. He was a member of the Assembly in 1879 and 1880, and served as Chairman of the Committee on Cities. His popularity at home is so great that some sanguine delegates pledged a majority for him below Harlem river.

William V. VanRensselaer, nominated for State Engineer and Surveyor, occupied the same place on the Republican ticket in 1885. He served during the war as a member of the 50th New York engineering corps in the army of the Potomac, reaching the rank of Captain. In 1881 he was appointed Assistant Superintendent of Public Works by Superintendent Dutcher for the middle division, serving three years. He is about fifty years old and a resident of Seneca Falls, of which Democratic village he is President.

Albert M. Haight, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, was born in Erie county in 1842, and studied law and established himself in practice in Buffalo. In 1872, at the age of 30, he was elected County Judge. In 1878, which was two years before the completion of his six years' term, he was elected to the Supreme Court by one of the largest majorities ever given for the office. In 1884 he was appointed to the General Term by Gov. Cleveland, and in January last was appointed by Gov. Hill a member of the second division of the Court of Appeals. His nomination was demanded by the delegates from Western New York, and was the only one made by the convention over which a division occurred. On the first and only ballot 440 votes were cast for him and 831 for Judge Arthur C. Cox of Utica. The perfect harmony that prevailed in the convention, the order and dignity of the entire proceeding, the enthusiastic feeling that took possession of the assemblage as the candidates, one after another, were placed in nomination, are auguries of an earnest and determined canvass and of a full vote. No Republican need feel any fear of the result if the full vote of the party is brought out. The party has a majority that runs up into the tens of thousands in the State, as was made apparent by the votes on President, Congress and Assembly last fall. Every delegate has gone home to work for the success of the ticket till the polls close on the 5th of November, and to inspire his fellow Republicans with his own confidence and enthusiasm.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The platform adopted at Saratoga yesterday appears in our news columns. It will be seen that the Republican party of New York stands on solid ground, and shows no wavering from the principles that have made it the hope of business, of labor, and of law, order, decency and sobriety. Defeat in the late gubernatorial canvass, followed by Governor Hill's vetoes of the most salutary measures, has not intimidated or weakened it, or caused it to take a single step backward. It boldly arraigns the Governor as a public enemy, an accusation against the executive head of the State that was never written in a Republican platform before. But he has earned it, and the people will uphold the terrible arraignment. For he has suppressed all respect or fear for the laws that place restrictions upon the liquor traffic, and made the open purchase and sale of votes at the polls unpunishable as a crime. The man who stands between the people and laws that make for their peace and security, and who robs the suffrage of its sacredness and value, deserves to be branded and scourged as a public enemy.

The Republican party pledges a renewal of its efforts in the direction of ballot reform and practical temperance legislation. It specifies no preferred way of reaching these results, but will endeavor to give the people the best laws possible. Another high license bill will be passed if the Legislature contains a Republican majority. The Prohibition amendment will also be sent to the people in order to give them full opportunity to choose between the two favorite methods of restriction. Another ballot reform bill will be passed, based on the Australian principle. Other states are demonstrating the wholesome effects of high license and ballot reform laws, until they are no longer subjects of experiment. To these great principles the Republican party is unalterably pledged, and by them it proposes to stand or fall.

The Democratic state convention has not yet met, but the platform of the party has been before the people for several weeks. It is to be found in the call for the convention issued by the State Committee. That call is for such delegates and such only as "are opposed to inequitable and oppressive sumptuary legislation," meaning thereby high license, prohibition, and all measures for the better regulation of the liquor traffic. This Democratic platform is simply a pledge of free whisky and a "Continental Sunday."

Against it we present the platform of the Republican party. The people will not be found indifferent to the contrast when they come to the polls.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The Representatives at Saratoga acted well their part. They may be said to have organized a new party for those whom they represented, the great rank and file of Republicans, to take up the campaign where they left it and carry it on to completion in November. The time is short. The campaign will be little more than a month long, so that every day is precious and must be made the most of. The State Committee will promptly proceed to business. Let the county and town committees bestir themselves. The tide is with the Republican party. If each man of us along the line does his best we shall win. New York is strong over to Harrison last year, and we have the votes to elect the Saratoga nominees.—New York Tribune.

Gov. Hill, who is one of the freaks that draw at county fairs, loves the horny hand of toil that brings a Democratic ticket to the polls, but he does not love it well enough to relieve it of taxation by taxing the liquor business. That is where he draws the line on his love for agriculture.—Binghamton Republican.

It is a platform that is a tower of strength, but a tower which, instead of being a defensive retreat, is an aggressive engine of powerful warfare. It ought to result in the election of every man on the ticket and a two-thirds majority in both branches of the Legislature.—New York Press.

We certainly cannot complain if the Chinese expel every American from their country. It would be too much to expect that even heathen forbearance would continue in such a case of insult and injury.—Providence Journal.

Gov. Hill may not find the reading of the Saratoga platform pleasant, but to most other people in New York and out of the State too, for the matter of that, it will prove mighty interesting.—Albany Express.

THE BEST ADVERTISING.
The most efficient advertising in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that which comes from the medicine itself. That is, those who are cured by it, speak to friends suffering similarly, who in turn derive benefit and urge others to try this successful medicine. Thus the circle of its popularity is rapidly widening from this cause alone, and more and more are becoming enthusiastic in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla as it actually demonstrates its absolute merit. All that is asked for Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it be given a fair trial. If you need a good blood purifier, or building up medicine, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

AFTER THE CONVENTION.

THE PLATFORM ADOPTED GIVEN HERE

IN FULL.

The Delegates Left for Their Respective

Homes Last Night and This Morning—The

State Committee Appointed—Hon. Thomas

Cornell was Chosen for This District, Etc.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 26.—This afternoon

Saratoga is comparatively deserted. The last of the delegates to the Republican

State Convention left for their respective homes this forenoon.

The platform adopted last evening is as follows:

First—The Republicans of New-York rejoice in the restoration of Republican supremacy in the Nation and take pride in the fact that this State has led in that result. We congratulate President Harrison upon the success of his administration, and declare our perfect patriotism. We reaffirm our loyalty to the Republican platform of 1888, and emphasize our approval of these doctrines:

Protection to American industries and to American labor.

The extension of American trade and fostering of American shipping interests.

Liberal and equitable pension laws and a discriminating preference of Union veterans in appointments to public office.

A National Law to secure the honest choice of Representatives in Congress.

The restoration of the efficiency of the postal service.

The rehabilitation of the navy.

The purification and elevation of the civil service.

The encouragement of popular education and the promotion thereby of National patriotism.

Second—We commend the action of successful Republican Legislatures in enacting wise and beneficent public measures, including the law taxing collateral inheritances, which has already relieved the burdens of taxation by over $2,000,000; the law taxing annuities, which produces $300,000 annually; the law making employees first preferred creditors in assignments; the law providing for the proper discipline and employment of convicts, and the law protecting the products of the farm and dairy.

Third—We commend Governor Hill as a public enemy for defeating by his vetoes the following measures of legislation: The Emancipation bill, twice passed in obedience to the requirement of the Constitution; the Constitutional Convention bill, passed in pursue of an overwhelming vote of the people; the Anti-bribery bill, to prevent corruption of voters and intimidation of employees at elections; all measures for excise revision and reform, notwithstanding their approval by prominent men of all political parties; the Reform bill, twice passed to secure a pure and untrammeled ballot; the Liquor

Tax bill, twice passed, which would have being the hardest of taxation on homes and farms to the extent of $3,000,000 annually—all which measures were passed by Republican Legislatures in response to the demand of an enlightened and patriotic public sentiment. We denounce these vetoes as being subversive of the rights of the people's representatives, and as being arbitrary and revolutionary. The repeated efforts of Republican Legislatures to secure Liberal reform and thoroughly pacificable temperance legislation are proof of the sincerity and good faith of the Republican party. No such barrier will be taken, and we pledge our determination, to persevere until salutary and adequate provisions of law on these vital subjects are embodied in the statutes of the State.

Fourth—We urge the continuance of efforts to render impossible improper combinations and conspiracies known as "trusts," which have for their object the restriction of trade and the enhancement in cost of the necessaries of life.

Fifth—The maintenance of the canal system in its highest efficiency and usefulness is demanded as necessary to the regulation of freight rates and the continued commercial supremacy of this State.

Sixth—Resolved, That this Convention recognizes the importance of the great historical event which it is proposed to commemorate by the World's Fair of 1893. Appreciating the stimulating effect of such a celebration

upon the industrial and commercial interests of the country and the National welfare we herby cordially endorse the enterprise, and declare that it should be conducted on a scale and in a manner commensurate with the importance of the Nation and the patriotism of the people. The selection of the chief City of the Empire State, the commercial metropolis of this continent, as the place for this fair, is highly commendable. We commend the action of the Legislature in promptly taking by Congress and the Legislature of this State as shall be needed to make this great event a success.

CITY HAPPENINGS AND CHAT.

BITS OF NEWS, STORIES AND SOME HUMOR AND GOSSIP.

The Fourteenth Separate Company—The Jewish New Year—A Philosopher Gives Some Advice—Women's Christian Temperance Union—What a Physician Says, Etc.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press believes the apprentice question will not wait much longer for a hearing. The right to earn a living by honest labor is as fundamental as any right can be. But when trades are hedged about with rules which limit the number of apprentices when the lists are complete, and when the ranks of unskilled laborers are full, then the surplus boys are ordered off the earth. There is no place for them and their only possible chance for existence is in begging or crime. When the trade unions set up their rules limiting the number of apprentices to be taught their trades in any shop, they did it for the purpose of preventing the market being overstocked with skilled labor, and the consequent reduction of wages from an over supply. But the rule has had no such effect. It has not lessened a whit the number of skilled workmen. What it has done and all it has done has been to prevent the sons of Americans, both native and adopted, from learning their fathers' trade. It has had the inevitable result of forcing men, who might be earning from $15 to $30 per week as skilled artisans, to accept salaries of from $5 to $10 as clerks or salesmen or bookkeepers, or worse than that, to compel them to live a hand-to-mouth sort of a life, doing anything or nothing, as their lack of training to any sort of work rendered imperative. Our work-shops have not fewer mechanics in them than if there had never been a rule against apprentices. There was the demand for skilled workmen, and there being not a sufficient supply here, our employers readily got it from abroad. They are constantly getting skilled workmen from over the sea, who come here and take the places which the sons of our own land should be permitted to take, should indeed, be welcomed to. That our streets are so full of idle, vicious young middle-aged men is chiefly due to the extinction of the apprentices in our workshops.

A philosopher has said:

The number of people who have not at some time in their lives enjoyed a comfortable income in excess of their immediate wants is so inconsiderable that it is not worth while to make a computation. The mistake with many is that they will not look out for the future. One of the most difficult of undertakings is that of teaching some people to live within the income, to save whenever possible. Good fortune or ability may secure employment for a young man that will bring him in a sum much larger than his needs require. His habits are not such as to lead him to the future's safety. He tells himself that having begun so well he will be able to keep it up. So he spends his money for expensive dress and in other channels. The habit of extravagance, instead of the habit of saving, is contracted. Some of the young man's money is thrown away in the gratification of fancies that lower his value to his employer. In time, either through business depression or his own inattention, he is deprived of employment. He is a fellow of grit, and is capable of self-examination, he sits in judgment upon himself and condemns his own gold-bones. If he be a man of sense, he becomes useless to the world. His habits of extravagance may lead him into forbidden paths. The habit taught by parents has been the same in a young man. Thrift without meanness is honorable and honored all the world over. The young man who saves is sure to become a valuable citizen. He is certain to be a good father and husband. When the young man comes to age and puts his money upon him, he need have no fear. The young man who prefers a good time is working against himself. If he has a good time at the beginning, he is likely to have a hard time at the end. Youth is strong, and is capable of self-denial. Age is weak, and after it has fought the battle of life it ought not to be compelled to practice all the arts of saving.

Turkeys, it is reported, will be high priced this fall. The reason assigned is that "the American turkey as an article of export is rapidly forcing its way into the markets of the London market, where it is now welcomed at a figure somewhere between $4 and $5 per head. The industry of shipping America's surplus turkeys to European markets was begun about a year ago. It is an indication of low rapid and substantial development of this particular trade has been, the steamship Devonia, which sailed from New York on Saturday, carried 700 cases of selected turkeys, which will be conveyed from Liverpool to the London market by lightning express delivery. It is expected that similar transatlantic shipments will be made by all steamers leaving New York during the winter months."

At 6 o'clock last evening the Jewish New Year was begun, and it will be continued until Saturday morning. Services were held in the Synagogue on Union-street, where Rabbi Wolf officiated. Services will also be held this evening and to-morrow forenoon and evening. The members of the Congregation Agudas Achaim, composed of Russian Jews, began celebrating in Griffith's Hall last night.

Last night a report was circulated Downtown that a stamp had been published to the effect that in 12 hours time the city would visit this section. Children who heard this prophecy expressed fear. In one portion of the Fifth Ward, where hoodlums play in streets until 9 o'clock, not one of the usually hilarious crowds could be seen.

Governor Hill has appointed Charles M. Preston, of this city, as one of five Commissioners, under chapter 47 of the laws of 1889, to consider the subject of the removal of Sing Sing Prison, and, if deemed advisable, they to select a new site therefor, and to report to the next Legislature.

A physician said this forenoon that there are cases of fever in the locality known as North-Roundout, and he attributes the cause of the disease to a low swampy pond that has no outlet. When the sun shines the water in this pond becomes stagnant and green slime forms.

The members of Wiltwyck Hose Company on their visit to Middletown on October 10 will be accompanied by a large number of friends. Special rates have been secured on the Walkhill Valley and New-York, Ontario & Western railroads.

The committees in charge of the arrangements for the fair of the Uptown Young Men's Christian Association have completed their preliminary work. The fair will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 1 and 2.

A horse became frightened on Union-avenue this afternoon and ran away. After a chase had been smothered and the driver, a young man, thrown out, the animal was caught on Ferry-street.

The members of the Kingston Horse Running team will hold a picnic in Barmann's Elysium on Monday, September 30, afternoon and evening.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company will participate in a full dress drill and give a promenade concert at the Armory this evening.

The members of the Downtown Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a meeting in their rooms at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The reason given that peppers are hotter this year than last is that they have had a good strong growth and are fully developed.

On account of so many stores of Hebrews being closed The Strand and lower Union-avenue had a "lonely" look to-day.

Onions are being used by some folks "as a substitute for quinine by certain people afflicted with malaria." Doctors smile.

Farmers in the suburbs are objecting to the posting of bills and mailing of signs on their barns and fences.

A number of saloon-keepers here, it is said, are not as defiant as they were several weeks ago.

An entertainment will be held this evening at Bethel A. M. E. Church on Foxhall-avenue.

Work on the sewers for the First Ward has been stopped for two days on account of the rain.

A prayer meeting will be held in the Wurt-Streit Baptist Church this evening.

The nuisance of burning leaves on streets will soon be commenced.

COUNTY COURT AND THE SESSIONS.

A Batch of Prisoners Sentenced to Serve Terms in Clinton.

When the Ulster County Court and Court of Sessions convened this forenoon No. 26, William Houghtaling vs. The Walkhill Valley Railroad Company, was put over the term. No. 18, Oliver B. Whitney vs. Lawrence Wardell, was placed on trial and a jury impaneled. The case is an appeal from the decision of Justice's Court. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover from the defendant the value of a note given by the firm of Walter J. Caywood & Company, who at the time the note was given were engaged in the business of selling paints and oils in the village of Marlborough. The note was issued on May 19, 1888, and was payable in three months. The action is brought against Lawrence E. Wardell, the alleged partner of Walter J. Caywood & Company. The defense is that at the time the note was given Lawrence E. Wardell was not a partner, and in no manner responsible. Eldorus Dayton is the attorney for the plaintiff and John Rusk for the defendant. Mr. Rusk is assisted by A. T. Clearwater. At the close of the testimony Mr. Clearwater moved for judgment on the ground that no proof had been shown that L. E. Wardell was the surviving partner of Walter J. Caywood & Co. The motion was denied.

The Grand Jurors came in Court at 2:35 o'clock and Justice's Court. The first indictment was against James Coughlin, assault in the second degree; William Galloway and John Raymond, each grand larceny; Anna M. Annan, perjury; W. Chester, rape.

John Raymond was sentenced to two and a half years in Clinton Prison at hard labor. William Chester was sentenced to Clinton Prison for 10 years and two months. Elmer Countrman was sentenced to Clinton Prison for five years.

William Galloway was sentenced to Clinton Prison for two years and six months. J. Coughlin will be tried on Monday.

Anna M. Ennis, charged with perjury, and Flora Miller with arson, were remanded back to jail. They will be again arraigned on Monday.

To the second indictment for rape William Chester pleaded not guilty. He will be tried.

TIDINGS OF BOATS AND BOATMEN.

A Barge Sunk in the Hudson River—Coal Tonnage at Tidewater, Etc.

On Tuesday night the barge Walter J. Ford, which left here on Saturday in one of the Cornell Steamboat Company's tows, sank in the Hudson River at Yonkers, having on board 1,300 feet of flagstone. The Captain and a deck-hand narrowly escaped drowning. They lost their personal effects. Walter J. Ford, of New York City, the owner of the barge, is a well known citizen. He is a native of the old ferry-boat George H. Marks, which ran between Troy and Albany. It also ran for a short time between Roundout and Rhinecliff. One day during a freshet in the Hudson the Marks was carried by the swift current against the bridge at Albany and smashed.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek at 10:45 o'clock last night.

There arrived at tidewater at Edenville yesterday 31 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats laden with 4,100 tons of coal.

The steamboat McDonald arrived at this port last night with a tow of 28 boats and barges from New-York.

The steamboats New-York and Albany will make their last trips for the season on October 15.

The steam passenger yachts of the Illaber Steamboat Company are popular.

The steamboat City of Hudson is undergoing repairs at Athens.

Educational Notes.

Teachers' examinations for third-grade certificates were held at the Third Commissioner District on October 5, at Woodstock and Accord, and on November 2 at Phenicia and Ellenville.

At the Teachers' Institute for the Second Commissioner District, in session at Highland, about 125 teachers are in attendance. Professor C. T. Barnes is the Conductor.

An Outing by Jolly Germans.

To-morrow afternoon 100 members of the Shulster's Club, a German organization, will leave New-York on the steamboat James W. Baldwin en route to Roxbury, where they will remain until Tuesday afternoon. Their arrival at Roxbury will be announced by the booming of two large cannons that were shipped there two days ago. During the stay the visitors will make excursions to points of interest in the Catskills.

Amusements.

The entertainment to be given at Kingston Opera House by the Gorman Minstrel Troupe to-morrow evening promises to attract a large audience. Men who have won renown in the "burnt cork" profession will be on the boards. The programme, it is promised, will be original.

The Peck's Bad Boy Company will give a performance at Liscomb's Opera House on October 4.

Accidents.

This forenoon boys named Winter and Fallon fell out of an express wagon on Chestnut-street and were injured. The Fallon boy was carried into the residence of John A. Larter, where he was attended by Dr. C. W. Crispell.

Yesterday the oldest daughter of John J. Cooney fell and broke her left arm on Wurt-street. Dr. John Buckley reduced the fracture.

Democratic Delegates Elected To-Day.

At the Democratic Third Assembly District Convention, held at C. C. Winne's Hotel, Phenicia, this afternoon, C. H. Weidner was elected Chairman and Oscar Hammond Secretary. Isaac Cox, of Wawarsing; Edgar A. Marks, of Hardenbergh; and Abram Rogers, of Shawangunk, were chosen delegates to attend the State Convention. There was no opposition. The delegates will go to the Convention unpledged.

A Puzzled Lawyer.

An amusing incident occurred in the County Court this forenoon. A lawyer who was counsel in a case that was called for trial noticed that neither his client, witnesses nor the defendant were present. He did not know what to do, and he had no way to remember that all the parties are Hebrews, and that to-day is the Jewish New-Year.

Bears That Box.

William DuBois, of Big Indian, has five bears, two large ones and three cubs. Two of the cubs have been taught to stand on their hind legs and box. They climb trees with the quickness of cats, and afford no end of amusement to visitors.

The correspondent of The Freeman at Lackawack writes: "The bark of the white birch, called 'pioneer writing paper,' is plentiful hereabout. It was of this material that Indians in the days of yore built their canoes. It is also used for wedding invitations, etc., and when printed makes a unique card. The bark can be torn in sheets, and from a thick board it can be converted into the thinnest of tissue paper. Hunters make use of the bark for building a house impervious to water. It may be placed in a pond for a whole day, and when touched with a lighted match, will readily ignite. In color it varies, but the light-yellow predominates."

CITY HAPPENINGS AND CHAT.

BITS OF NEWS, STORIES AND SOME HUMOR AND GOSSIP.

The Fourteenth Separate Company—The Jewish New Year—A Philosopher Gives Some Advice—Women's Christian Temperance Union—What a Physician Says, Etc.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press believes the apprentice question will not wait much longer for a hearing. The right to earn a living by honest labor is as fundamental as any right can be. But when trades are hedged about with rules which limit the number of apprentices when the lists are complete, and when the ranks of unskilled laborers are full, then the surplus boys are ordered off the earth. There is no place for them and their only possible chance for existence is in begging or crime. When the trade unions set up their rules limiting the number of apprentices to be taught their trades in any shop, they did it for the purpose of preventing the market being overstocked with skilled labor, and the consequent reduction of wages from an over-supply. But the rule has had no such effect. It has not lessened a whit the number of skilled workmen. What it has done, and all it has done, has been to prevent the sons of Americans, both native and adopted, from learning their fathers' trades. "It has had the inevitable result of forcing men, who might be earning from $15 to $30 per week as skilled artisans, to accept salaries of from $5 to $10 as clerks or salesmen or bookkeepers or, worse than that, to compel them to live a hand-to-mouth sort of a life, doing anything or nothing, as their lack of training to any sort of work rendered imperative. Our workshops are not fewer mechanics in them than if there had never been a rule against apprentices. There was the demand for skilled workmen, and there being not a sufficient supply here, our employers readily got it from abroad. They are constantly getting skilled workmen from over the sea, who come here and take the places which the sons of our workmen should be permitted to take, should indeed, be welcomed to. That our streets are so full of idle, vicious young middle-aged men is chiefly due to the extinction of the apprentices in our workshops."

A philosopher has said:
The number of people who have not at some time in their lives enjoyed an income in excess of their immediate wants is so small that it is not worth while to make a computation. The mistake with many is that they will not look out for the future. One of the most difficult of undertakings that of teaching some people to live within the means, to save whenever possible. Good fortune or ability may secure employment for a young man that will bring him in a sum much larger than his needs require. His expenses are small, and he is in the future's sky. He tells himself that having begun so well he must do better as the years go on. So he spends his money for expensive dress and in other channels. The habit of extravagance, instead of the habit of saving, is contracted. Some of the young man's money is thrown away in the gratification of tastes that lower his value to his employer. In time, either through business depression or his own neglect, he is deprived of employment. He is a fellow of grit, and is capable of self-examination, he sits in judgment upon himself and condemns his own foolishness. If he is a weak brother he speedily becomes useless to the world. His habits of extravagance may lead him into forbidden paths. The habit taught by parents has been the saving of many a young man. Theft without means is honorable and honored all the world over. The young man who saves is sure to become a valuable citizen. He is certain to be a good father and husband. When rainy days come and age puts its heavy hand upon him he need have no fear. The young man who reforms a good time is working against himself. If he has a good time at the beginning he is likely to have a bad time at the end. Youth is strong, and is capable of self-denial. He is weak, and after he has fought the battle of life it ought not to be compelled to practice all the arts of saving.

Turkeys, it is reported, will be high priced this fall. The reason assigned is that "the American market is flooded with an article of rapidly forcing itself into the good graces of the London market, where it is now welcomed at a figure somewhere between $4 and $5 per head. The industry of shipping America's surplus turkeys to European markets began about a year ago, and as an indication of how rapid and substantial the development of this particular trade has been, the steamship Devonia, which sailed from New York on Saturday, carried 700 cases of selected turkeys, which will be conveyed from Liverpool to the London market by lightning express delivery. It is expected that similar transatlantic shipments will be made by all steamers leaving New York during the winter months."

At 6 o'clock last evening the Jewish New Year was begun, and it will be continued until Saturday morning. Services were held in the Synagogue on Union-street this forenoon. Rabbi Wolf officiated. OUR BARGAIN DAY.

CITY HAPPENINGS AND CHAT.

BITS OF NEWS, STORIES AND SOME HUMOR AND GOSSIP.

The Fourteenth Separate Company—The Jewish New Year—A Philosopher Gives Some Advice—Women's Christian Temperance Union—What a Physician Says, Etc.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press believes the apprentice question will not wait much longer for a hearing. The right to earn a living by honest labor is as fundamental as any right can be. But when trades are hedged about with rules which limit the number of apprentices when the lists are complete, and when the ranks of unskilled laborers are full, then the surplus boys are ordered off the earth. There is no place for them and their only possible chance for existence is in begging or crime. When the trade unions set up their rules limiting the number of apprentices to be taught their trades in any shop, they did it for the purpose of preventing the market being overstocked with skilled labor, and the consequent reduction of wages from an over-supply. But the rule has had no such effect. It has not lessened a whit the number of skilled workmen. What it has done and all it has done has been to prevent the sons of Americans, both native and adopted, from learning the fathers' trades. "It has had the inevitable result of forcing men, who might be earning from $15 to $30 per week as skilled artisans, to accept salaries of from $5 to $10 as clerks or salesmen or bookkeepers, or worse than that, to compel them to live a hand-to-mouth sort of life, doing anything or nothing, as their lack of training to any sort of work has rendered them. The work-shops have not fewer mechanics in them than if there had never been a rule against apprentices. There was the demand for skilled workmen, and there being no sufficient supply, home employers readily got it from abroad. They are constantly getting skilled workmen from over the sea, who come here and take the places which the sons of our workmen should be permitted to take, should indeed, be welcomed to. That our streets are so full of idle, vicious young middle-aged men is chiefly due to the extinction of the apprentices in our workshops.

A philosopher has said: "The number of people who have not at some time in their lives enjoyed an income in excess of their immediate wants is so inconsiderable that it is not worth while to make calculations. The mistake with many is that they will not look out for the future. One of the most difficult of undertakings is that of teaching some people to live within their income, to save whenever possible. Good fortune or ability may secure employment for a young man that will bring him in a sum much larger than his needs require. He is buoyant. He sees no clouds in the future. He tells himself that having begun so well he must do better as the years go on. So he spends his money in expensive dress and in other channels. The habit of extravagance, instead of the habit of saving, is contracted. Some of the young man's money is thrown away in the gratification of tastes that cover his value to his employer. When the rainy day comes and he is unemployed, he is through business depression or his own imprudence, he is deprived of employment. He is the fellow of grief and is capable of no further assistance in judgment upon himself and condemns his own excesses to the world. His habits of extravagance may lead him into further excesses. The habit taught by parents has been the saving of many a young man. Thrift without meanness is honorable and honored all the world over. The young man who is sure to become a valuable citizen. He is sure to be a good father and husband. When the rainy day comes and age puts its heavy hand upon him he need have no fear. The young man who spends a good time in working against himself, if he has a good time at the beginning he is likely to have a hard time at the end. Age is weak, and after it has fought the battle of life it ought not to be compelled to practice all the arts of saving.

Turkeys, it is reported, will be high-priced this fall. The reason assigned is that "the American turkey as an article of export is rapidly forcing itself into the good graces of the London market, where it is now welcomed at a figure somewhere between $4 and $5 per head. The industry of shipping America's surplus turkeys to European markets was begun about a year ago, and has an indication of low rapid and substantial the development of this particular trade has been, the steamship Devonian, which sailed from New York on Saturday, carried 700 cases of selected turkeys, which will be conveyed from Liverpool to the London market by lightning express delivery. It is expected that similar transatlantic shipments will be made by all steamers leaving New York during the winter months.

At 6 o'clock last evening the Jewish New Year was begun, and it will be continued until Saturday morning. Services were held in the Synagogue on Union-street this forenoon. Rabbi Wolf officiated. Services will also be held this evening and tomorrow forenoon and evening. The members of the Congregation Agudas Acham, composed of Russian Jews, began celebrating in Griffith's Hall last night.

COUNTY COURT AND THE SESSIONS.

A Batch of Prisoners Sentenced to Serve Terms at Clinton.

When the Ulster County Court and Court of Sessions convened this forenoon No. 26, William Houghtaling vs. The Walkkill Valley Railroad Company, was put over the term. No. 13, Oliver B. Whitney vs. Lawrence Wardell, was placed on trial and a jury impaneled. The case is an appeal from the decision of a Justice's Court. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover from the defendant the value of a note given by the firm of Walter J. Caywood & Company, who at the time the note was given were engaged in the business of selling paints and oils in the village of Marlborough. The note was issued on May 19, 1888, and was payable in three months. The action is brought against Lawrence E. Wardell, the alleged partner in the firm of Walter J. Caywood & Company. The defense is that at the time the note was given Lawrence E. Wardell was not a partner, and in no manner responsible. Eldorus Dayton is the attorney for the plaintiff and John Rusk for the defendant. Mr. Rusk is assisted by A. T. Clearwater. At the close of the testimony Mr. Clearwater moved a non suit on the ground that no present had been made. The court refused to grant it. The case was then continued to the next term.

The Grand Jurors came in Court at 2:35 o'clock and presented the following indictments: Flora Miller, arson; James Coughlin, assault in the second degree; William Galloway and John Raymond, each grand larceny; Anna M. Annan, perjury; W. Chester, rape.

John Raymond was sentenced to two and a half years in Clinton Prison at hard labor. William Chester was sentenced to Clinton State Prison for 10 years and two months at hard labor.

J. Coughlin will be tried on Monday. Anna M. Annan, charged with perjury, and Flora Miller with arson, were remanded back to jail. They will be again arraigned on Monday.

To the second indictment for rape William Chester pleaded not guilty. He will be tried.

TIDINGS OF BOATS AND BOATMEN.

A Barge Sank in the Hudson River—Coal Tonnage at Tidewater, Etc.

On Tuesday night the barge Walter J. Ford, which left here Saturday in one of the Cornell Steamboat Company's tows, sank in the Hudson River at Yonkers, having on board 1,300 tons of flagstone. The Captain and a deck-hand narrowly escaped drowning. They lost their personal effects. Walter J. Ford, of New-York City, the owner of the vessel, will have it raised. The barge was made from the old ferry-boat George H. Marks, which ran between Troy and Albany. It also ran for a short time between Rondout and Rhinecliff. One day during a freshet in the Hudson the Marks was carried by the swift current against the bridge at Albany and smashed.

DOINGS AT THREE COUNTY FAIRS.

The Rain Interferes With the Agricultural Shows in Orange and Dutchess Counties.

A dispatch from Middletown, dated last night, states: In spite of threatening skies and occasional light showers the second of the four days' fair of the Orange County Agricultural Society at Goshen brought together 5,000 people, exclusive of 2,000 pupils of the public schools of the County admitted free. The more conspicuous and successful exhibitions are in the departments of horses, horned cattle, fruits and of art fancy work.

The grand cavalcade of horses for exhibition for the award of premiums moved around the track at 2 p. m., numbering over 300 horses. The exhibition of thoroughbred, graded and native-horned cattle exceeds anything ever seen at an Orange County fair, and includes entries that took first premiums at the late State fairs of New-York and New-Jersey.

The exhibition is notably fine in Ayreshire, Holstein and Dutch belted stock. The show of fruits from the vineyards and orchards of the County is full and excellent. One large building is filled with a complete and attractive array of exhibits under the head of the "fancy work and domestic manufactures of particular interest to the ladies."

Blood Poison.

"I am not interested in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I bought and paid for all I used. This testimonial I give for the benefit of those affected with any disorder of the blood."

"Four years ago on a warm day I handled a lot of boards covered with poison ivy. I soon had all the symptoms of ivy poisoning, and it spread all over me till I was scald from head to feet, with intense heat and itching."

My skin peeled, my hair and whiskers came out, my finger nails came off. Physicians succeeded in drying it up at times, only to have it break out again. I was finally obliged to give up work, and was confined to the house two months. One physician said I would die, and I had given up hope. Mother urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I took one bottle before I saw any special effect. Then the old skin began to peel off, and the New Skin Was Soft and Moist. Then I bought six bottles for five dollars; took three bottles and was apparently well. But the next morning in warm weather, when I got my blood warmed up, the poisoning would come out again in spots and burn and itch. Then I took two other bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and for two years I have been free from any return of the poisoning.

I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifier." Geo. W. Vrusk, Depot Master, Brookport, N. Y.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.
